

World Book Day

To link with World Book Day, we will be holding a book fair in the school hall on:

Thursday 2nd March from 3.30pm

In addition, the children are invited to write a short story in the style of their favourite author. Winning entries will be awarded a book prize from the fair.

This year we will NOT be dressing up.

Governor Open Morning

On Tuesday 7th March we will be holding a Governor Open Morning. This is the first time we have held an event of this kind and the intention is to encourage closer links between the governors and rest of the school community.

The Governor Open Morning will begin with an informal 'coffee with the parents' at 8.50am.

Please do come along and meet your governors.

Mrs Dyke's Farewell Tea Party

After 14 years of service, Mrs Dyke will be leaving Rickmansworth Park School at Easter. To thank her for all that she has done, and to provide everyone with an opportunity to say goodbye, we will be holding a farewell tea party at 3.20pm on Thursday 30th March. Please do pop in for a cup of tea and a slice of cake.

Morning Drop Off

Please can we remind all parents that, in order to keep the children safe, access to the school must be gained via the path through the junior playground – not through the car park. The car park is very busy at this time of day. On Wednesday mornings, if you are dropping off for yoga, you will need to wait with your child outside the infant double doors until a member of staff is present at 8am.

Thank you
